EC President Elected To Head College Group

Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of El Camino College, will serve during the coming year as president of the American Association of Junior Colleges. He was elected to the post Thursday at the organization's national convention in Boston.

Active in the AAJC for many years, Dr. Marsee served as vice president during the past year and had previously been a member of the board of directors.

Dr. Marsee came to El Camino in 1958, taking over the reins of the college from Forrest G. Murdock, who retired after serving as president since the college was founded in 1946.

A RESIDENT of Torrance, Dr. Marsee and his wife, Audrey, make their home at 358 Camino de las Colinas. They have three sons, Frederick, Jeffrey, and Wayne.

He succeeds Dr. Donald A. Eldredge, head of Bennett College in Millbrook, N.Y., as AJC president.

Prior to assuming the presidency of El Camino College, Dr. Marsee was acting superintendent of the Pasadena City Schools. A member of Phi Delta Kappa, he holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Oregon and received his doctorate from USC in 1947.

He has taught in the public schools of Walport and Astoria, Oregon, and at USC.

ENGAGED in community activities as well as education, Dr. Marsee is a member of the Torrance Rotary Club and has been a member of the board of directors of the Inglewood YMCA and a trustee of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach.

During World War II, he served as an officer in the U.S. Navy Supply Corps.
